

17. G. 10.

The Royal London Ophthalmic Hospital Reports.

1882.

VOLUME TEN.

LONDON :

J. & A. CHURCHILL, NEW BURLINGTON STREET.

put with set owned by List of ophthalmology
at UCHMS
request 3/3/83

HARRISON AND SONS,
PRINTERS IN ORDINARY TO HER MAJESTY,
ST. MARTIN'S LANE.

CONTENTS

OF

THE TENTH VOLUME.

PART I.

ORIGINAL CONTRIBUTIONS.

	PAGE
1. G. LAWSON, F.R.C.S., On some Points in the Treatment of Sympathetic Ophthalmia	1
2. W. A. BRAILEY, M.D., A Theory of Glaucoma	10
3. PRIESTLEY SMITH, M.R.C.S., A further Investigation of the Pathology of Glaucoma. (Illustrated).....	25
4. GEORGE BERRY, M.B., On Central Amblyopia	44
5. JOHN COUPER, M.D., F.R.C.S., On a New Ophthalmoscope. (Illustrated)	56
6. LITTON FORBES, M.A., M.D. Pennsylvania, On Keratoscopy	62
7. STANFORD MORTON, M.B., On Pulsation in Embolism of the Central Artery of the Retina	76
8. G. LAWSON, F.R.C.S., On a Simple Method of Investigating Acuteness of Vision in Young Children	79
9. MARCUS GUNN, M.A., M.B., House Surgeon's Notes on the Treatment of In-patients	80
10. W. A. BRAILEY, M.D., and W. EDMUNDS, M.D., On the Condition of the Optic Nerve, Ciliary Body, and Iris, in Increased Tension.	86
11. W. A. BRAILEY, M.D., Curator's Report. Morbid Anatomy of Glaucoma. (Illustrated)	94
12. Appendix to Curator's Report: Frozen Sections of Eyeballs. (Illustrated)	131
13. WALTER EDMUNDS, M.D., and W. A. BRAILEY, M.D., On some Changes which occur in the Blood-vessels in Diseases of the Eye considered in their relation to General Pathology. (Illustrated).	132

PART II.

ORIGINAL CONTRIBUTIONS.

14. G. CRITCHETT, F.R.C.S., On the Treatment of Sympathetic Ophthalmia	141
15. J. W. HULKE, F.R.S., F.R.C.S., A Summary of Cases of Ocular Palsy, with Comments	148
16. R. MARCUS GUNN, M.A., M.B., On the Continuous Electrical Current as a Therapeutic Agent in Atrophy of the Optic Nerve and in Retinitis Pigmentosa. (Illustrated)	161

	PAGE
17. W. CHARNLEY, M.A., M.D., and L. WEBSTER FOX, M.D., Three Cases of New Formation of Blood-Vessels in the Vitreous. (Illustrated)	193
18. G. LAWSON, F.R.C.S., A Case of Primary Epithelioma of the Lower Eyelid. (Illustrated).....	200
19. G. LAWSON, F.R.C.S., Voluntary Nystagnus.....	203
20. J. C. WORDSWORTH, F.R.C.S., A Case of Simultaneous Sub-Conjunctival Dislocation of Both Crystalline Lenses, caused by the Kick of a Horse	204
21. L. WEBSTER FOX, M.D., and W. A. BRAILEY, M.D., A Case of Glaucoma preceded by Optic Neuritis, with Remarks	205
22. S. SNELL, Case of Cyst (Cholesteatomatous) of the Iris.....	208
23. J. E. ADAMS, F.R.C.S., Some Cases of Diphtheritic Conjunctivitis	211
24. J. E. ADAMS, F.R.C.S., On some Unusual Forms of Iritis.....	214
25. G. H. BURNHAM, M.B., House Surgeon's Notes.—Treatment of In-Patients. (Illustrated)	216
26. W. A. BRAILEY, M.D., Curator's Pathological Report. Tumours of the Eyeball or Orbit.—Two cases of Glaucoma of extremely short duration.—Seven cases of Suppurative Hyalitis.....	225
27. R. G. HEBB, M.D., and W. A. BRAILEY, M.D., On the Phenomena of Suppurative Hyalitis and their Relation to the "Migration Theory"	269
28. W. A. BRAILEY, M.D., On the Relation of Tumours of the Eye to Intra-Ocular Tension.....	275
29. W. A. BRAILEY, M.D., On the Nature and Course of the Glaucomatous Process	282
30. W. A. GREENHILL, M.D., Oxon., On the Meaning of the Words Nyctalopia and Hemeralopia : with a Critical Examination of the use of these words in the Ancient Greek and Latin Authors	284

PART III.

ORIGINAL CONTRIBUTIONS.

31. J. W. HULKE, F.R.S., F.R.C.S., On a Case of Spurious Neuroma of the Optic Nerve.....	293
32. G. LAWSON, F.R.C.S., On a Case of Tumour Springing from the Optic Nerve. (Illustrated).....	296
33. G. LAWSON, F.R.C.S., On a Case of Hydatid Tumour of Orbit	301
34. J. TWEEDY, F.R.C.S., On a Case of Ivory Exostosis of the Orbit. (Illustrated)	303
35. G. LAWSON, F.R.C.S., On a Fatal Case of Tumour of the Brain, with Optic Neuritis. (Illustrated).....	311
36. C. HIGGINS, F.R.C.S., On Eight Cases of Conical Cornea Treated by Elliptical Excision.....	316
37. A. CRITCHETT, M.A., M.R.C.S., On a Case of Sympathetic Ophthalmia occurring Fifteen Days after Removal of the Injured Eye ..	322
38. W. J. MILLES, F.R.C.S., On Sympathetic Ophthalmitis following Extraction of Cataract	325

	PAGE
39. A. H. BENSON, M.B., F.R.C.S.I., On a Case of Embolism of the Central Artery of the Retina; Modified by the Presence of a Cilio-retinal Artery. (Illustrated)	336
40. A. H. BENSON, M.B., F.R.C.S.I., On a Case of Voluntary Nystagmus	343
41. W. CHARNLEY, M.A., M.D., On Keratotomy. (Illustrated)	344
42. W. A. BRAILEY, M.A., M.D. (Cantab.), On the Size and Position of the Crystalline Lens in Glaucoma	372
43. W. J. MILLES, F.R.C.S., House Surgeon's Notes. On Iodoform, Atropine Ointment, Spasmodic Entropion of the Lower Lids, and Iridotomy	386
44. W. A. BRAILEY, M.A., M.D., Curator's Pathological Report on New Formations in or upon the Choroid. (Illustrated)	390
45. W. A. BRAILEY, M.D., and GAMA LOBO, M.D., On Choroidal New Formations	405
46. J. TWEEDY, On the Meaning of the Words Nyctalopia and Hemeralopia	413

